INFANT CLASS WORK IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The first Primary Teachers' Institute was held yesterday in the chapel of the Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby's church, at Twenty-second-st, and Fourthave, under the aspices of the New-York Primary Union. The Union is a department of the New-York Sunday-school Association devoted to the instruction in the infant classes of Sanday-schools. It is undenominational, and admits the teachers and others interested in infant class work from all the churches in the city. Nearly all the churches were represented in the instinct yesterday, although the weal-her was unfavorable, and the seats of the chaped were filled with laders during the morning and afternoon sessions. Mrs. W. F. Crafts presided, and the seats of the chaped were filled with laders during the morning and afternoon sessions. Mrs. W. F. Crafts presided, and interesting musical exercises were conducted by Mrs. Joseph F. Knarp. W. D. Porter addressed the institute in the morning on "Spiritual Work with Children," and there were remarks also by Mrs. S. W. Clark, Miss Hattie N. Morris, Miss M. Van Marter and Mrs. Mary A. Lathbury.

In the afternoon an address was made by Mrs. Kate L. Seymour on "Pictorial Teaching." Mrs. J. S. Ostrander presented a number of plans of holiday entertainments; giving an account of the exercises and the decorations that she had made use of on several occasions. Remarks were also made by Mrs. M. G. Kennedy, of Philadelphia, and Hope Ledyard, and the meeting was closed by Mrs. W. F. Crafts. A lunch was served at noon in the chapel. GENERAL WOODFORD OUT OF OFFICE.

GENERAL WOODFORD OUT OF OFFICE.

General Stewart L. Woodford locked his desk at the District-Attorney's omes at 6 o'clock last night with the remark that he was as glad to leave the omes as he had been to enter it. He wrote yesterday a letter to Elihu Koot, by whom he is succeeded, explaining the routine of the office and calling attention to several of the more important cases awaiting trial. He also sent to Attorney-General Brewster a report of the business of the office sluce June 30, 1832. From this it appears that 816 cases have been begun and 1,379 closed since the date of the last report, There are 2,667 cases now open, most of which are suits against collectors. In concluding the report General Woodford says:

There were open on the dockets of this office in January, 1877, when I became the Attorney of the United States, about 6,500 cases. Since then I have commenced the prosecution or undertaken the defence of about 7,650 new cases, making a total of about 14,150 suits and proceedings. These 14,150 cases have all been disposed of except the 2,667 cases now pending and herewith reported.

Assistant District-Attorney Waliace has resigned GENERAL WOODFORD OUT OF OFFICE.

Assistant District-Attorney Waliace has resigned his position, the resignation to take effect next week. Mr. Waliace expects to enter General Woodford's law firm. It is expected that Assistant District-Attorney Fiero will resign when he can do so without embarrassing the new District-Attorney.

A dinner was given to General Woodford last night at Delmonico's by his assistants in the office. The table was set for nine persons: General Woodford, Assistant District-Attorneys William P. Fiero, Samuel B. Clarke, E. B. Hill, William J. Wallace, Charles F. James, J. P. Clark and G. E.P. Howard, and ex-Assistant District-Attorney Thomas Greenwood.

JUMPING THIRTY FEET FROM A WINDOW. Anne Leahy, on complaint of her sister, Mary McKenna, of No. 778 Tenth-ave., was arrested on Friday night as a vagrant and also as a lunatic, She was locked up in the Twenty-second Precinct Police Station and yesterday morning was placed in charge of Officer Walters to be taken to the Yorkville Court. The building is being repainted, and the prisoners, instead of being taken up the rear way as usual, enter the court room by means of the front entrance. Accompanied by Officer Walters the woman ascended the steps, and as the policeman went to open the door of the court room she jumped from an open window on the landing, thirty feet from the ground. She alighted on her feet, but blood gushed from her nostrils and mouth. She was taken to the Warden's office, moaning faintly, and in a few moments she died from internal injuries. The body was removed to the morgue, where an inquest was held by Coroner Martin. The woman was fifty years of age, and is believed to have been ilsane.

SATURDAY, March 10-P. M

The stock speculation to-day developed a remarkable strength, but with it all the market was extremely dull. The bank statement, unexpectedly bad as it was, did not deter the advance in prices; in fact, the upward movement did not begin till after the figures of the bank statement were published. Before that the market had been dull and steady at small declines from last evening's figures The pivotal stocks upon which the market turned were the Vanderbilt stocks, and particularly Central and Hudson, and following these was Union Pacific. The total transactions amounted only to 255,224 shares, and the special feature of the afternoon's dealings was the ease with which prices were advanced; there absolutely was no resistance offered. The market closed quiet and strong at the best prices of the day.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that a movement has been started for the settlement of that portion of the Virginia State debt which was assigned to the State of West Virginia, and which is represented by what are known as Virginia deferred certificates. The movement has been in progress for a long time, and seems at last to have taken tangible and practicable shape. The programme is to pool these certificates so that this part of the debt can be represented as a unit in future operations. Then it is purposed to have a friendly suit instituted between Virginia and West Virginia in order to determine the just portion of the debt that West Virginia ought equitably to assume; when this is determined, to effect a settlement upon the best practicable terms with the State of West Virginia, the net result to be divided pro rata among those who participate. It will be observed that the programme proceeds upon the design of the state of the programme proceeds upon the design of the state of the debt that West Virginia ought equitably to assume;

THE PETROLEUM MARKET.

The Reno No. 2 well came in to-day, and promises to be a good producer, although there is little authentic information regarding it. Some dispatches put the outflow at forty barrels for the first thirty min-utes. Another well came in also—the Murray, situated a little south of the last Grandin well. This well, however, is reported to be a small one.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] CHICAGO, March 10.-The grain and provithose who participate. It will be observed that the programme proceeds upon the basis of taking the State of West Virginia at her word, viz., that she is ready to pay what she equitably ought to pay. In fact, in view of recent decisions, no other idea is practicable. How well this will succeed may be a question. But if it does not succeed, it is evident nothing else will.

Railroad bonds were only moderately active, but the dealings presented no special features. Prices generally were steady or strong. Erie second consols were up \(^1\)_4 at 97\(^1\)_4. Canada Southern firsts were \(^2\)_4 lower at 96, New-York. Chicago and 84, Louis firsts steady at 97, and New-York. West Shore and Buffalo 55 were up \(^1\)_2 at 76\(^1\)_4.
